By Letters from Berkſhire, we are informed that the Waters are all returned into their proper Channel; and that the Corn, on the Lands that have been ſo long overflowed, carries a better Aſpect than could have been expected.

The King of Pruſſia's Miniſter at Warſaw delivered a freſh Declaration to the Primate, on the 2nd of January, diſclaiming any Intention in the King, his Maſter, to diſmember any Part of the Poliſh Dominions, and again recommending to the Poles to chuſe for their Prince a Native of the Kingdom.

It is now thought that the Iſlands of St. John and Cape Breton will be diſpoſed of in the ſame equitable Manner.

NEW-YORK, May 7.

On Monday laſt the whole Body of New-Jerſey Provincials, raiſed for the preſent Expedition againſt the Indians, arrived here, on board ſeveral Veſſels, and the ſame Day ſailed for Albany.

Our laſt authentick Intelligence from Albany, dated April the 23d, will, perhaps, be very Pleaſing to our Readers.

—Two Days ago, Capt. Montour arrived with four of his Party at Johnſon-Hall, [illegible] Time ſince. The [illegible] Nephew to the [illegible] a Chief of the Delawares. Capt. Montour brought with him [illegible] at Wioming, with [illegible] others [illegible] who were [illegible] under ſome [illegible] Williamſon(?), [illegible]

[illegible] (the Enemy) are ſituated there, ſo as to [illegible] the Troops.

The Publick may confide in the following Report now in Town, viz. That by the Articles of Peace agreed on by the Five Nations, and Sir William Johnſon, they are to cede to his Majeſty, all the Country from Niagara to above the Great Falls, on both Sides of the River; being a Tract of 14 or 15 Miles in Length, and ſeveral in Breadth; very advantageous Conceſſions, equally intereſting to the Publick.

In the Courſe of the laſt Sitting of the General Aſſembly of this Colony, the Committee of Correſpondence with our Agent at the Court of Great-Britain, laid before the Houſe two Letters from Him; One bearing date 26th November 1763, mentioning, That the Sum of £. 133,333 : 6 : 8 Sterling granted to the Northern Colonies for the Services of the Year 1762, was likely ſoon to iſſue; it was Ordered, That a Bill be brought in to appoint proper Perſons to receive the Proportion of it; which was accordingly done. The other Letter dated 11th February 1764, adviſing that, "Upon "Complaints of divers Merchants trading to Virginia, "That they were injured in their Property by Means of a "Paper Currency iſſued in that Colony, the Lords Commiſſioners for Trade and Plantations ſeemed determined to "adopt the Plan of the Act paſſed in the 24th of the late "King, for regulating and reſtraining the Paper Currency "of New-England; and to propoſe that the ſame ſhould be "extended over all the other Colonies in America:" It was Reſolved by the Houſe, That if that Plan ſhould be carried into Execution, it would not only highly reflect on the Credit, Honour, and Punctuality of this Colony, but alſo reduce it to a State of Bankruptcy, as by the Want of a proper Medium of Gold and Silver, it would be incapacitated to carry any publick and neceſſary Meaſure into Execution, unleſs a Paper Currency be permitted to be iſſued on ſolid Funds, and that ſuch Currency be allowed as a proper Tender in all Payments within the ſame. After which it was Ordered, That the Committee draw up a proper State of the Paper Currency of this Colony, with all Speed, and tranſmit it to the Agent; diſtinguiſhing therein particularly for what Purpoſes the ſame hath from time to time been emitted, on what Funds; and ſhewing, that all poſſible Care is taken for ſinking it at the proper periods; and that therefore it would be highly Unjuſt, after this Colony has involved itſelf in an enormous Expence at the Requiſition of the Crown, in a juſt and neceſſary War againſt the common Enemy, and hath always ſupported its Honour and Credit with great Punctuality (and granted a Loan of One Hundred and Fifty Thouſand Pounds when His Majeſty's Service required it) to involve it in the Evils imputed to others. It was likewiſe Ordered, that the Committee direct the Agent to give all poſſible Oppoſition by himſelf, or Counſel, againſt any Bill being paſſed into a Law that may be brought into Parliament, for adopting the Plan aforeſaid.

The Day after the foregoing Procedure, Alderman Livingſton, in Behalf of the Merchants of this City, preſented the Copy of a Memorial drawn up by the ſaid Merchants, in order to be preſented to the Parliament of Great-Britain; the Purport of which is, complaining of the Hardſhips the Trade of this Colony labours under, by Reaſon of the Statute of the 6th of his late Majeſty George II. commonly called The Sugar Act, and praying Relief in the Premiſes. The Houſe approved of it; and Reſolved, Nem. Con. to pay all Expences attending our Agent's utmoſt Oppoſition to the Renewal or Continuation of the ſaid Act.

Some of our Advices by the Packet are, that a Scheme of Taxation of the American Colonies has for ſome Time been in Agitation: That it had been previouſly debated in the Parliament, whether they had Power to lay ſuch a Tax on Colonies which had no Repreſentatives in Parliament, and determined in the Affirmative: That on the Ninth of March, ——— made a long Harangue on the melancholy State of the Nation, overloaded with heavy Taxes, and a Debt of 148 Millions, 10 Millions of which had been added in the four laſt Years: That by a Computation, which he laid before the Houſe, 360,000 l. Sterling per Annum was expended on North-America, and therefore it was but reaſonable they ſhould ſupport the Troops ſent out for their Defence, and all the other Expences of the Nation on their Account. To raiſe this Sum, he propoſed that the Drawbacks on Re-exportation of particular Goods ſhould be diſcontinued: That a Duty ſhould be laid on Eaſt-India Goods, a Duty of 7 l. Sterling per Ton on all Wines from Madeira, the Weſtern and Canary Iſles; a Duty of 3d. per Gallon on foreign Molaſſes, of 20s. per Hundred on Sugars; a high Duty on Coffee, Cocoa, &c. and that Rum ſhould be wholly prohibited: That Wines from Spain, Portugal, &c. ſhould be firſt landed in England, before it might be ſent to America, [which ſeems to make it liable to a double Duty]. Beſides this, an internal Tax was propoſed, a Stamp Duty, &c. but many Members warmly oppoſing it, this was deferred till next Seſſion; but it was feared that the Tax upon foreign Goods would paſs into a Law this Seſſion. That theſe Colonies are under great Diſadvantages, in not having ſufficient Intereſt in Parliament; from the Want of which, the Weſt-Indians have been able to [illegible] That Mr. Jackſon, (Agent for Connecticut, a Member of the Houſe) exerted himſelf [illegible] That Mr. Allen of Philadelphia [illegible] to many of the [illegible] to the Majeſty [illegible] and [illegible]

FORT PITT, April 14, 1764.

Extracts from the Examination of Gerſhom Hicks (a White Man) lately with the Indians, who came in here the 14th inſt. as a Spy, taken at ſeveral different times.

THAT an Engliſh Army was expected by the Indians down the Ohio this Spring. That he left Hockhocking about 30 Days ago, in Company with 7 Delaware Indians, to go to War on the Frontiers. That they came in upon Sherman's Valley, murdered and ſcalped one Man and his Wife, and took two little Boys, their Children, Priſoners. That they came with the Children within a few Miles of this Poſt, when he was deſired to come in here, under Pretence he had made his Eſcape from the Indians, and to enquire into the Strength of the Poſt, Ammunition, Proviſions, &c. what Guards were out each Day, and to return to them in two Nights; and that if he met with any Indians, not to let them know any thing till he got to [illegible]. That the Night they came here a Party of 8 Shawaneſe came to their Sleeping Place, and had two Scalps, which they got between Ligonier and Bedford. That there were three Parties of Indians from the Salt Licks, Hockhocking, and Wackatamochy, conſiſting of 9, 10, and 13; and one Party of 30, from Scioto, to ſet off for this Poſt a few Days after him, and that he does believe they are about this Fort now. That about the latter End of this Month 40 Wyandots, and 20 Ottowas, were to ſet out for this Poſt, that their Parties might Way-lay the Communication. That in May the Wyandots, Ottowas, Delawares and Shawaneſe, in all about 800, were to come and attack this Poſt, and to keep all in a Body; and ſhould they fail here, to proceed and attack Ligonier and Bedford, which were not ſo ſtrong as this. That laſt Winter two Delaware Chiefs and White Eyes [illegible] them, went down to the [illegible] on the Miſſiſippi, and took ſome Engliſh Scalps, and aſked Aſſiſtance from the French to carry on the War againſt us. That they found both French and Engliſh in that Fort. That the Commanding Officer, a Frenchman, would not hear them, and ordered the Scalps to be thrown out of Doors, and gave them ſome Flints and Powder, and ordered them to return. But that they went to ſome French People, called Out-laying French, that live along the Miſſiſippi, and are great Traders with the Indians for Ammunition, &c. one of which had 500 Barrels of Powder, and Lead in Proportion. That White Eyes purchaſed of him nine Horſe Loads; but in returning, thro' the Badneſs of the Weather, they loſt great Part of it. And that they entered into an Agreement with theſe Traders to ſend up to Scioto, before the End of May, two Batteaus of Powder, Lead, &c. and that they would ſend their Canoes, loaded with Peltry, to meet them, and that he is of Opinion they are there by this time. And that about the Middle of the Summer, they are to ſend [illegible] Batteaus more. And they are to pay them with the Skins and Furs taken from our Traders in their Towns. But ſhould this fail (which he thinks not at all probable) they will [illegible] Arrows. And that the [illegible] with the Indians with [illegible] That White Eyes viſited [illegible] ſiſſippi, from whom he [illegible] the Engliſh, to which they [illegible] White Men ſhould not live on [illegible] they would join in Bodies, and [illegible] row Paſſages on the River, and [illegible] our Boats and Troops as they paſſed. That theſe Indians are very numerous, known by the Names of [illegible] Cowepetous, Warkaws, and another Nation, which he does not remember. That the Wyandots, Ottowas, Delawares and Shawaneſe [illegible] their Chiefs, intended to come here [illegible] all Sincerity, to [illegible] this Poſt and [illegible] But if [illegible]

NEW-YORK, May 7.

On Monday laſt the whole Body of New-Jerſey Provincials, raiſed for the preſent Expedition againſt the Indians, arrived here, on board ſeveral Veſſels, and the ſame Day ſailed for Albany.

Our laſt authenticated Intelligence from Albany, dated April the 23d, will, we hope, be very Pleaſing to our Readers.

Two Days ago, Capt. Montour arrived with ſome of his Party at Johnſon-Hall, brought the Scalp, &c. taken ſome Time ſince. The Indian ſcalped, was a Head Warrior, Nephew to the Squaſh-Cutter, a Chief of the Delawares. Capt. Montour brought with him likewiſe, a Lad named Emanuel Stover, of Rariton, New-Jerſey, taken laſt Year at Wioming, with 6 others, by the Delawares; and a Delaware who went to Johnſon-Hall, on the 20th Inſtant, under ſome ſpecious Pretences, was, on Diſcovery of his Villainies, apprehended. The 6 Nations (except those in Purſuit of the Enemy) are returned Home, to be in Readineſs for accompanying the Troops.

The Public may confide in the following Report now in Town, viz. That by the Articles of Peace agreed on by the Five Nations, and Sir William Johnſon, they are to cede to his Majeſty, all the Country from Niagara to above the Great Falls, on both Sides of the River; being a Tract of 15 or 16 Miles in Length, and ſeveral in Breadth; very advantageous Conceſſions, equally intereſting to the Public.

In the Courſe of the laſt Sitting of the General Aſſembly of this Colony, the Committee of Correſpondence with our Agent at the Court of Great-Britain, laid before the Houſe two Letters from Him; the one dated 26th November 1763, mentioning, That the Sum of L. 133,333 : 6 : 8 Sterl. granted to the Northern Colonies for the Services of the Year 1762, was likely ſoon to iſſue; it was Ordered That a Bill be brought in to appoint proper Perſons to receive the Proportion of it, which was accordingly done. The other Letter dated 10th February 1764, adviſing that, "Upon "Complaints of divers Merchants trading to Virginia, "That they were injured in their Property by Means of a "Paper Currency iſſued in that Colony, the Lords Commiſ"ſioners for Trade and Plantations ſeemed determined to "adopt the Plan of the Act paſſed in the 24th of the late "King, for regulating and reſtraining the Paper Currencies "of New-England; and to propoſe that the ſame ſhould be "extended over all the other Colonies in America;" it was Reſolved by the Houſe, That if that Plan ſhould be carried into Execution, it would not only highly reflect on the Credit, Honour, and Punctuality of this Colony, but alſo reduce it to a State of Bankruptcy, as by the Want of a proper Medium of Gold and Silver, it would be incapacitated to carry any publick and neceſſary Meaſure into Execution, unleſs a Paper Currency be permitted to be iſſued on ſolid Funds, and that ſuch Currency be allowed as a proper Tender in all Payments within the ſame. After which it was Ordered, That the Committee draw up a proper State of the Paper Currency of this Colony, with all Speed; and tranſmit it to the Agent; diſtinguiſhing therein particularly for what Purpoſes the ſame hath from time to time been emitted; on what Funds; and ſhewing, that all poſſible Care is taken for ſinking it at the proper periods; and that therefore it would be highly Unjuſt, after this Colony has involved itſelf in an enormous Expence at the Requiſition of the Crown, in a juſt and neceſſary War againſt the common Enemy, and hath always ſupported its Honour and Credit with great Punctuality (nay granted a Loan of One Hundred and Fifty Thouſand Pounds when His Majeſty's Service required it) to involve it in the Evils imputed to others. It was likewiſe Ordered, that the Committee direct the Agent to give all poſſible Oppoſition by himſelf, or Council, againſt any Bill being paſſed into a Law that may be brought into Parliament, for adopting the Plan aforeſaid.

The Day after the foregoing Procedure, Alderman Livingston, in Behalf of the Merchants of this City, preſented the Copy of a Memorial drawn up by the ſaid Merchants, in order to be preſented to the Parliament of Great-Britain; the Purport of which is, complaining of the Hardſhips the Trade of this Colony labours under, by Reaſon of the Statute of the 6th of his late Majeſty George II. commonly called The Sugar Act, and praying Relief in the Premiſes. The Houſe approved of it; and Reſolved, Nem. Con. to pay all Expences attending our Agent's utmoſt Oppoſition to the Renewal or Continuation of the ſaid Act.

Some of our Advices by the Packet are, that a Scheme of Taxation of the American Colonies has for ſome Time been in Agitation: That it had been previouſly debated in the Parliament, whether they had Power to lay ſuch a Tax on Colonies which had no Repreſentatives in Parliament, and determined in the Affirmative: That on the Ninth of March Mr. ——— made a long Harrangue on the melancholy State of the Nation, overloaded with heavy Taxes, and a Debt of 148 Millions, 52 Millions of which had ariſen in the four laſt Years: That by a Computation, which he laid before the Houſe, 360,000 l. Sterling per Annum was expended on North-America, and therefore it was but reaſonable they ſhould ſupport the Troops ſent out for their Defence, and all the other Expence of the Nation on their Account. To raiſe this Sum, he propoſed that the Drawbacks on Re-exportation of particular Goods ſhould be diſcontinued: That a Duty ſhould be laid on Eaſt-India Goods, a Duty of 7 l. Sterling per Ton on all Wines from Madeira, the Weſtern and Canary Iſles; a Duty of 3d. per Gallon on foreign Melaſſes, of 10 s. per Hundred on Sugars; a high Duty on Coffee, Cocoa, &c. and that Rum ſhould be wholly prohibited: That Wines from Spain, Portugal, &c. ſhould be firſt landed in England, before it might be ſent to America, [which ſeems to make it liable to a double Duty]. Beſides this, an internal Tax was propoſed, a Stamp Duty, &c. but many Members warmly oppoſing it, this was deferred till next Seſſion; but it was feared that the Tax upon foreign Goods would paſs into a Law this Seſſion. That theſe Colonies are under great Diſadvantages, in not having ſufficient Intereſt in Parliament; from the Want of which, the Weſt-Indians have been able to [illegible] againſt them. That Mr. Jackſon, Agent for Connecticut, (a Member of the Houſe) exerted himſelf nobly, and that it was chiefly owing to him that the Stamp Act did not take Place; likewiſe, That Mr. Allen of Philadelphia, was indefatigable, in remonſtrating to many of the Members, with whom he was acquainted, on the Illegality of an internal Tax, and had conſiderable Influence in preventing it.

PHILADELPHIA, May 10.

By the Brig Olive Branch, Captain Robertſon, from Honduras Bay, we have Advice, that the Spaniards had forbid the Engliſh from cutting Wood in the Bay; upon which they had ſent an Expreſs to Jamaica for Aſſiſtance.

FORT PITT, April 16, 1764.

Extracts from the Examination of Gerſhom Hicks, (a White Man) lately with the Indians, who came in here the 14th Inſt. as a Spy, taken at ſeveral different times.

THAT an Engliſh Army was expected by the Indians down the Ohio this Spring. That he left Hockhocking about 30 Days ago, in Company with 7 Delaware Indians, to go to War on the Frontiers. That they came in upon Sherman's Valley, murdered and ſcalped one [illegible] and his Wife, and took two little Boys, their Children, Priſoners. That they came with the Children within a few Miles of this Poſt, when he was deſired to come in here, under Pretence he had made his Eſcape from the Indians, and to enquire into the Strength of the Poſt, Ammunition, Proviſions, &c. what Guards were out each Day, and to return to them in two Nights; and that if he met with any Indians, not to let them know any thing till he got to King Beaver. That the Night they came here a Party of 8 Shawaneſe came to their Sleeping Place, and had two Scalps, which they got between Ligonier and Bedford. That there were three Parties of Indians from the Salt Licks, Hockhocking, and Wackatomochy, conſiſting of 9, 10, and 13; and one Party of 30, from Sciota, to ſet off for this Fort a few Days after him, and that he does believe they are about this Fort now. That about the latter End of this Month 40 Wyondots, and 100 Ottowawas, were to ſet out for this Poſt; that their Parties were to Way-lay the Communication. That in May the Wyondots, Ottowaws, Delawares and Shawaneſe, in all about 800, were to come and attack this Poſt, and to keep all in a Body; and ſhould they fail here, to proceed and attack Ligonier and Bedford, which were not ſo ſtrong as this. That laſt Winter two Delaware Chiefs, and White Eyes with them, went down to the large French Stone Fort, on the Miſſiſippi, and took three Engliſh Scalps, and aſked Aſſiſtance from the French to carry on the War againſt us. That they found both French and Engliſh in the Fort. That the Commanding Officer, a Frenchman, would not hear them, and ordered the Scalps to be thrown out of Doors; and gave them ſome Flints and Powder, and ordered them to return. But that they went to ſome French People, called Out-laying French, that live along the Miſſiſippi, and are great Traders with the Indians for Ammunition, &c. one of which had 4 or 500 Barrels of Powder, and Lead in Proportion. That White Eyes purchaſed of him nine Horſe Loads; but in returning, thro' the Badneſs of the Weather, they loſt great Part of it. And then they entered into an Agreement with three Traders, to ſend up to Sciota, before the Firſt of May, 12 Batteaus of Powder, Lead, &c. and that they would ſend their Canoes, loaded with Proviſions, to meet them, and that he is of Opinion they are there by this time. And that about the latter Part of the Summer, they are to ſend the Indians 12 Batteaus more. And they are to pay them with the Skins and Furs taken from our Traders in their Towns. But ſhould this fail (which he thinks not at all probable) they will attack us with Bows and Arrows. And that the firſt Batteaus were to furniſh the Indians with two Frenchmen [illegible]. That White Eyes viſited ſome Indians on the Miſſiſippi, from whom he aſked Aſſiſtance againſt the Engliſh, to which they conſented, ſaying, the White Men ſhould not live on the Miſſiſippi; that they would join in Bodies, and lay on all the narrow Paſſages on the River, and attack our Boats and Troops as they paſſed. That theſe Indians are very numerous, known by the Names of Cawtahoos, Cawectoos, Warſaws, and another Nation, which he does not remember. That the Wyandots, Ottowaws, Delawares and Shawaneſe, with their Chiefs, intended to come here, under Pretence for a Peace, to watch an Opportunity to get into the Fort, and murder every Soul. But if they miſcarried, they would fight their Way to the Lakes, from thence to the Miſſiſippi, and join the above Tribes. And finally, that they ſent Deputies to the Six Nations to join, who treated them with Contempt, told them to fight for themſelves, and called them Women; which ſo much diſguſted them, that they ſometimes threatened to go to War againſt them. [illegible]
